

Global Sources MATCH upgraded with the Meet Your Supplier Live program

The highly acclaimed Global Sources MATCH has enriched its service array by introducing the Meet Your Supplier Live program, enabling suppliers to meet with top industry buyers regardless of time and geographical limits.

- Matching suppliers with quality buyers worldwide
- Learn about VIP buyers' sourcing needs and specifications
- Obtain insights and sourcing demands of top industry leaders
- Seize potential and upcoming export opportunities

On January 20, we held the first Meet Your Supplier Live event for Methodology, an American food and meal delivery service provider, and successfully matched the company with ten high-quality suppliers.

Based in the San Francisco Bay Area, Methodology is committed to delivering clean, healing, delicious food. All meals the company delivers are free of gluten, refined sugar and dairy ingredients. To keep the packaging sustainable, almost all the products are sold in glass jars.

WHO ARE WE?

We are a food & meal delivery service based in San Francisco, Bay Area. We are makers of food that are clean, healing, and incredibly delicious!

We are not just your normal healthy food delivery company. Our mission is to heal bodies and minds using FOOD AS MEDICINE and the latest innovations in food and technology, to end lifestyle and autoimmune diseases.

All of our food is gluten-free, refined sugar-free, and dairy-free. And in an effort to keep packaging sustainable, almost all of our products are sold in glass jars.

Following the successful MATCH event with Methodology, we have invited Walmart, one of the top buyers in the retail industry, to participate in the Meet Your Supplier Live program.

Walmart is an American retail chain, the largest company in the world in terms of turnover, ranking first among the Fortune Global 500 companies in the United States for seven consecutive years. The company has opened more than 10,000 stores in 27 countries around the world.
